DELAWARE ANTIQUE & COLLECTIBLE EXTRAVAGANZA SET FOR SUNDAY, MAY 8, 2011 TO COINCIDE WITH DOVER DAYS WEEKEND

DOVER, DE -- On Sunday, May 8, 2011, in conjunction with Dover Days Weekend, Spence's Bazaar is being transformed to host the Delmarva Peninsula's largest free outdoor antique and collectible show, the "Delaware Antique and Collectible Extravaganza". The show's location is 550 S. New Street, Dover, DE, and is managed by promoters Toyshows.org.

Antique and Collectible Dealers from up and down the East Coast will be offering a wide variety of merchandise sure to please enthusiasts and shoppers with varied tastes. Vintage furnishings, artifacts, jewelry, porcelain, ephemera, glassware, advertising, dolls, trains, pottery, collectibles and toys will be featured.

Dover Days Weekend, May 6-8, will celebrate its 78th anniversary in 2011. It is one of Delaware's longest-running festivals celebrating First State history, and admission is free. The event begins Friday evening with a judged car show and outdoor concert, followed by a jam-packed day on Saturday. The 2010 festival drew 25,000 people from all over the Mid-Atlantic Region.

Admission is free. Gates open at 9:00 am show runs till 4:00 pm. Food and Facilities available.
